Private First Class Andrew Lawrie,

Pursuant to 7th Cavalry Regiment Uniform Code of Military Justice and SOP 7 CAV-R-023, I am sending you this communique to rehash the discussion associated with CID Investigation #13-016.

It has been advised to you, and you acknowledged during the interview on 24JUL2013 that it was a violation of General Order #3 for you to be wearing the membership tags {TCG}, Tactical Combat Gaming, a "Life" server community. While it is certainly acceptable to have an account on their forums and engage their members in gameplay, it is a violation to become a member of their community and the rights/benefits associated with same, including assignment of tags to be worn on their servers.

Please advise your understanding to the following:

1. As a member of the 7th Cavalry Regiment, you are required by General Order #3 and Uniform Code of Military Justice to wear your Regimental tags on all servers, including TeamSpeak, regardless of whether the Area of Operation is supported by the Regiment or not, with the exception of MMORPGs; and
2. You have read and understand our General Orders and Code of Conduct, and agree to abide by all General Orders, Codes of Conduct and Regulations associated with the 7th Cavalry Regiment; and
3. This conduct will not occur again in the future.

Additionally, while this will formally be placed in your personnel jacket, it shall not be punitive in nature against you, merely present for records purposes.

Thank you in advance.

Signed,

Major Bourne, Kevin

I, PFC.Lawrie have reread the Rules and Regulations regarding wearing 7 Cav tags and multi claning. The issue has been resolved on the TCG side, I have left TCG and it will not happen again.
